Professor Alberto Hurtado,
Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos,
Lima, Peru.

Dear Professor Hurtado:

I was delighted to learn through the newspaper today that you have been made a member of the Papal Academy of Sciences in Rome. I am sure you are very proud of this signal distinction.

As you will note from the stationery, I am now in the Science Attache's Office at the American Embassy in Bonn. I plan to return to Washington with the Air Force next year. I hope that your many investigations on high-altitude acclimatisation are proving as fruitful as ever.

If I can ever be of service to you from my post in Germany please do not hesitate to write.

Sincerely yours,

Herman I. Chinn
Acting Scientific Attache
